SAMPLE ENGLISH QUESTION SHEET – CLASS 7

Section A: Unseen Passage

Comprehension Passage

“The Whispering Forest”

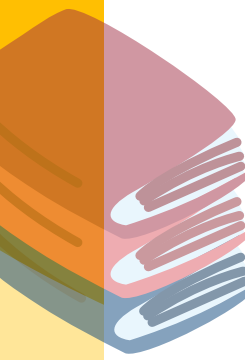

Long ago, at the edge of a quiet village, there stood a forest known as the Whispering Woods. The villagers believed the forest spoke to those who truly listened. While most people dismissed it as a tale, young Mira was curious. Every evening, she sat beneath an old banyan tree, straining her ears to catch the faint rustle of leaves that sounded almost like words.

One evening, when the golden light of sunset painted the forest floor, Mira heard a gentle murmur — not of wind, but of voices. “Help us,” they seemed to say. Startled but unafraid, she followed the sound deeper into the forest. The air grew cooler, and the path narrower, until she reached a small clearing where an ancient stone lay cracked in two.

The voices whispered again, “Set us free.” Mira noticed that the stone was covered in strange, glowing letters. She couldn’t read them, but she traced the carvings with her fingers. The moment she did, a soft breeze circled her, and the forest brightened. A figure appeared — not human, but made of light and air. It thanked her for breaking a centuries-old curse that had trapped the spirits of the forest.

From that day, the forest stopped whispering. Instead, it sang – a melody of freedom and gratitude that echoed across the valley. The villagers, once fearful, began to walk the forest paths again, and Mira grew up to become its protector, ensuring no harm ever came to it again.

And though the whispers were gone, Mira often felt that the trees still remembered her touch.
